MEMBERSHIP CRITERIA

The EMA of BC's constitution requires that "Members will be from either the industrial, commercial or institutional sectors and such organizations that provide environmental support and environmental services to these sectors", generally excluding regulators and non-industry special interest groups.

The annual membership dues are $374.50 (including GST) which entitles members to participate in all our meetings, receive newsletters and take advantage of extraordinary events put on by the Association. Members receive a discount towards annual workshop fees. Memberships are corporate and entitle any number of employees to participate in the activities of the EMA of BC.
